

Norah Remmers Bio:

Norah graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Superior with a BFA in Studio Art, Painting Emphasis. She spent two years as an artist in residence with Transform Art in New York City. Several components of this residency included community outreach and involvement as well as the pursuit of her individual craft. She now resides in Boston, Massachusetts.

Her experience includes creating and teaching art curriculum for K-5th grade art classes in Brooklyn, NY. She collaborated and co-designed a mural in Brownville, Brooklyn. Norah is a member of LIC Artists in NYC and Bloom Arts Collective in Astoria, Queens. She has led seminars on art and faith in Minneapolis Winter Conference in 2011 and 2012 and directed two art intensives for college art students. Norah has exhibited her art in group shows with IAM, FTKCA, In Bloom, CRU and Tribeca, SP. Norah leads a bible study at The School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, MA.

Artist Statement

For Print Exchange piece titled "Born"

This piece expresses my exploration (and struggle) of the theme "Greater than Man." It depicts my answer yet opens up a whole new world of questions for me. There is such great humility and vulnerability here, and so much potential.